What's included in a Club Choice Tour?

Golf

We work with a large variety of links and parkland courses ranging from local gem's to some of the world's best courses.

Ferry

We have an exciting partnership with Stena Line Ferries on the Irish Sea, so taking the car, coach or minibus on your golf trip has never made more sense.

Accommodation

Whether it's 5 Star luxury or 3 Star Self Catering, our partner accommodation providers have every option covered.

Transfers

Sometimes it's easier to just let someone else do the driving and so we can arrange for 9 seater minibuses or 54 seater luxury coaches to take you there.

Car Hire

If you are flying, then vehicle hire is a great option as it gives you the independence to go where you want, when you want.

Food

A full irish breakfast is a must before hitting the fairways but we can also cater for evening meals, private presentation dinners and even recommend local resaurants.

Excursions

Perhaps you want a day away from the course or your partner would like to experience some of our world famous heritage sites.

Ann & Bob, North Carolina

"A big thank you from myself for organising a trip for so many of us. The whole trip from initial booking to final arrangements went smoothly. Everything went as planned. There is already talk from next years Captain of repeating the trip."

Steve, Swansea

"Thanks once again to team at Club Choice for providing us with a first-class golf tour. All 24 of us on the 'One Fore the Road' tour had a great time and are looking forward to booking with Club Choice for our 2024 trip."

Paul, Weston

Who are Club Choice?

With over 55 years' combined experience in the Irish golf industry, the family team of Tiernan, Larry & Aoife are the experts you want looking after your golf trip to Ireland's Ancient East.

Club Choice Ireland is the regional golf marketing group for the 'Ireland's Ancient East' region and one of the leading incoming golf tour operators in the country. We are a full member of the International Association of Golf Tour Operators and are fully endorsed by our national Tourism bodies, the Irish Government and thousands of satisfied customers.

EAST COAST & DUBLIN

Dublin | Kildare | Wicklow | Louth | Meath

The East Coast & Dublin Region is one of the most densely populated areas of golf in all of Ireland. Boasting some of the world's finest links courses along with some truly breath-taking parklands, it's a golfer's paradise. Getting here, by air or sea, really couldn't be easier with Dublin International Airport and Ferry Port only minutes drive from your first tee off.

East Coast Dublin

The Royal Dublin Golf Club Dublin

Founded in 1885, The Royal Dublin Golf Club is steeped in golfing history and presents a stern golfing examination on a truly magnificent links course and is widely accepted as one of the greatest links courses in the world.

Host to the Irish Amateur Open back in 1894, the Club also regularly hosts the Irish Amateur Close and the Irish PGA. "Five-star golf" and "a top course" are some of the visitor comments made about this "challenging but rewarding" links course.

The Grand Hotel Dublin

The iconic four-star Grand Hotel Dublin in the heart of Malahide, is a unique seaside retreat while also being convenient to the attractions of Dublin city centre and just 20 minutes from Dublin Port.

With 203 luxurious bedrooms and a 21-meter swimming pool, jacuzzi, steam room, sauna and state of the art gymnasium, guests can easily unwind after a satisfying day of golf before heading to the Matt Ryan bar.

St. Anne's Golf Club Dublin

Established in 1921, St Anne's Golf Club's spectacular eighteen-hole links course is one of only 53 links courses in the country. Only five miles from Dublin city centre, we are particularly fortunate to be located on the UNESCO Wildlife Sanctuary on the spectacular Bull Island which is one of Dublin's most scenic and exceptional nature reserves.

St. Anne's has a well-earned reputation for great hospitality and conviviality so visitors can be sure of a very warm welcome from staff and members alike.

Jameson Golf Links Dublin

Situated on the shoreline of a rugged peninsula, Jameson Golf Links first opened for play in 1995. Located just 15 minutes from Dublin Airport, Jameson Golf Links is the perfect location for anyone looking to enjoy a golf break near Ireland's capital.

Spread across 203 acres the Links makes full use of the dunes and natural terrain to provide a layout that will please the most ardent of links purists.

The Marine Hotel Dublin

Built in 1897 and originally called The Golfers Hotel, the Marine Hotel in Sutton is an ideal base for exploring Dublin & its surrounding golf courses.

Just a 5-minute walk from the beach and with rooms overlooking Dublin Bay, The Marine Hotel once boasted an indoor seawater swimming pool. Though the pool is no longer seawater, together with the sauna it provides a perfect way to unwind after a long day golfing and exploring.

Beech Park Golf Club Dublin

Celebrating its 40th anniversary in 2023 and nestled in the great Johnstown Kennedy Estate, Beech Park took its name from the centuries old beech trees that line its fairways.

Designed by the great Eddie Hackett, the natural landscape of the estate and the remnants of the old estate, such as stone walls and old French drains, combine to make Beech Park unique and creates a beautiful walk around the course.

East Coast Kildare

Thanks for providing us with a first-class golf tour, The K Club was in fantastic condition.

One Fore the Road Tour, Weston

The K Club - Palmer North Kildare

The Arnold Palmer designed North Course at The K Club is quite simply, one of Europe's most spectacular courses. It charms, it entices and invariably, brings out the very best in your game. Ranked regularly in the top 3 parkland golf courses in Ireland, this Arnold Palmer designed golf haven is a must play 'badge of honour' that has hosted the top golf players in the world. Palmer North has played host to the 2006 Ryder Cup, 11 European Opens, and the 2016 and 2023 Irish Open which it will host again in 2025 and 2027.

The K Club - Palmer South Kildare

The best way to describe the Arnold Palmer designed South Course at The K Club is that of an inland links course. However, its true attributes do not stop there. The course has many dramatic landscapes with dune style mounding throughout. This assists in making the course into a true Championship Golf Course with many vantage points for spectators to view golf professionals at work. This course has played host to some of European tour golf's most exciting moments.

Millicent Golf Club Kildare

The gem of the Ryder Cup countryside, Millicent Golf Club is conveniently located less than 30 minutes from Dublin. This superb 18 hole USGA specification championship golf course is set in beautiful surroundings. The river Liffey borders a number of holes and the Dublin and Wicklow Mountains form its backdrop. Using the natural landscape to its fullest, this 150 acre course has been described as the driest in Leinster, staying open when weather forces others in the area to close.

The Westgrove Hotel Kildare

Located just off the M7 and with easy access to the M4, the 4-star Westgrove Hotel is the ideal base for your golf break when arriving into Dublin.

Just 30 minutes outside of the city, the Westgrove Hotel is located in the County Kildare village of Clane and is perfectly located for your golf tour in Ireland's Ancient East. Your every need is catered for at the Westgrove Hotel, where a genuinely warm welcome awaits you.

Palmerstown House Estate Kildare

The Championship Golf Course designed by Irish Golfing legend Christy O'Conner Jnr is one of the country's greatest tests of parkland golf. Host to the 2005 Irish PGA Championship and the Irish Seniors Open in 2007, the golf course is set amidst thousands of mature trees with impressive bunkering and an exquisite use of water making it a golfer's paradise. The Estate boasts a state of the art floodlit Trackman driving range along with a luxurious clubhouse.

East Coast Wicklow

Powerscourt Golf Club (East) Wicklow

There are not many places in the world like Powerscourt Golf Club, located only 30 minutes from Dublin airport. The East course was designed by the talented golfer and successful Walker cup captain Peter McEvoy who brilliantly follows the contours of this mature and historic landscape. It has hosted the 1998 Irish PGA which three time major winner Pdraig Harrington won in a playoff. The East course also hosted the 2001 Irish Seniors Open.

The Martello Hotel Wicklow

The Martello Hotel offers an unmatched combination of accommodation, dining, drink, music and late night entertainment in a lively, vibrant, modern setting on the seafront at Bray, County Wicklow, just 30 minutes from Dublin city centre.

The hotel provides 30 recently renovated hotel bedrooms and 17 self-catering apartments, which are ideal for golfers! The Martello is renowned for the fun-loving buzzy atmosphere and style of the hugely popular 'Martello Bar' which incorporates a continental style outdoor area.

Powerscourt Golf Club (West) Wicklow

The West course at Powerscourt brings David McLay Kidd's experience and detail for a challenging, rewarding and highly enjoyable golf course to life. The beautiful scenery and the greens from the West course can be heard talked about in the clubhouse all evening long from our visitors who want a second chance at it.

It is no wonder that Powerscourt West course was a past recipient of the "Best Overall Parkland Venue" award.

Rathsallagh Golf & Country Club Wicklow

This magnificent course opened in 1994 and was designed by Peter McEvoy and the late Christy O'Connor Jnr. It sits in beautiful parkland with mature woodland lining all the fairways. Rathsallagh is a golf course built to championship standard, routed over rolling terrain and with a number of burns, ditches and ponds that bring water into play on several holes. The course is beautifully maintained with challenging bunkers and hundreds of trees flanking the fairways.

Blainroe Golf Club Wicklow

You will find Blainroe Golf Club just south of Wicklow Town, its clifftop location affords some spectacular views of the Irish Sea.

Our 18 Hole, Par 72 Course measures 6175 meters, opened in 1978 and carries the prestigious Hawthtree & Son design signature. Blainroe is now recognised as one of the finest coastal parkland golf courses in the south-east of Ireland.

In the modern Clubhouse visitors can avail a full bar, catering facilities, and a fully stocked Professional shop.

“What can I say about Club Choice Ireland... Fantastic service and amazing value for our trip.”

Paul, Preston

East Coast Wicklow

“Tiernan and team pulled out all the stops during our trip to Ireland. We would highly recommend Club Choice for future trips to Ireland.”

Chris, Savannah

Woodenbridge Golf Club Wicklow

Described as “Ireland’s Augusta” Woodenbridge Golf Course is steeped in history. The current 18 hole layout was created in 1994 when the pre-existing 9 hole course – dating back to the 1890’s – was extended. Seamlessly blending tradition and modern design, the course incorporates the flows of the Avoca and the Aughrim rivers, which come into play on ten of the holes. This makes Woodenbridge one of the most scenic courses you can play in Ireland.

Wicklow Golf Club Wicklow

One of the oldest golf clubs on the East Coast, Wicklow Golf Club was founded in 1904 and is an 18-hole cliff top course with outstanding and unique sea views hewn from the wild coastline of Wicklow.

As you play, enjoy the spectacular views of the Wicklow Mountains and the magnificent coastline from the old Wicklow Head Lighthouse to the South and all of Wicklow Bay to the North.

Druids Glen Golf Club Wicklow

Known to many as the “Augusta of Europe”, this course is famous for hosting the Irish Open on four occasions. This is truly a course of Champions as Montgomerie, Garcia, Faldo and Harrington have all played here. So come, follow in the footsteps of golfing legends and play on Druid’s Glen. Once you’ve walked off the 18th, relax in the 400 year old Woodstock House Clubhouse and share your golfing tales with friends.

Druids Glen Hotel & Golf Resort Wicklow

The perfect location for a golfing break in Ireland, where you can tee off on a course of champions in surroundings rich in history and prestige. At the 5 star Druids Glen Hotel & Golf Resort, nature and luxury meet to create a memorable escape. Nestled in 360 acres of countryside between the Wicklow Mountains and the Irish Sea, yet only thirty minutes from Dublin, Druids Glen provides a sanctuary from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

Druids Heath Golf Club Wicklow

There are few places in the world that encapsulate the true spirit of the game of golf like Druids Heath. The mountains, sea and rolling Irish countryside provide stunning vistas throughout your round. The sea breeze calls for shot-making skills and imagination from the golfer. Host venue for the 2006 Irish PGA Championship, Druids Heath has played host to many leading Tour Players including double US Open Champion Retief Goosen.

Louth & Meath

“Everything went very smoothly and to plan. The hotel was very good and we thought Seapoint and County Louth were excellent courses.”

Martyn, Kendleshire

Seapoint Golf Links

Louth

Seapoint Golf Links offers a golf experience that gives testament to the quality of the challenge presented by its designers. Opening in 1995, the course has hosted European Tour and Irish PGA Tournaments.

Measuring 6,439 meters from its Championship tees, Seapoint provides a links challenge for even the most formidable of golfers. However, a variety of teeing positions ensures a fair test for golfers of all abilities to enjoy a wonderful links experience.

County Louth Golf Club

Louth

County Louth Golf Club is often referred to as ‘Baltray’ and is located close to the historic town of Drogheda on Ireland’s east coast. It is just 40 minutes north of Dublin Airport and one hour from Dublin city. A historic member-owned club founded in 1892, the course is laid out in two nine-hole loops and is noted for excellent presentation standards and its many unique green complexes and is consistently ranked among the Top 10 courses in Ireland.

Headfort Golf Club (New)

Meath

Christy O’Connor Jnr, the designer of the new Championship course at Headfort, has made maximum use of this beautiful estate with the surrounding forests and the magnificent, mature, broadleaf trees dotted around the land. This course promises to be the jewel in the crown of Irish golfing circles. “It is the finest piece of land I have worked with.” according to Christy O’Connor Jr. The Sunday Independent’s Dermot Gilleece wrote: “This is potentially the most attractive 36-hole parkland facility in the country.”

Headfort Golf Club (Old)

Meath

A magnificent Parkland course established in 1928, blessed with gentle undulations and mature specimen trees. A fair but challenging test of your golfing skills awaits. The old course, formerly part of the Headfort Estate, was developed into an 18 hole course in 1956. Visitors from all over the world have enjoyed the experience of playing Headfort’s old course. You will return to the friendly Clubhouse inspired by your golf and entranced by the beauty of the course.

“As ever, our golf trip to Ireland, was a resounding success. The sun came out and the Meath golf courses were at their sublime best.”

Dafydd, Caernarfon

Take the opportunity to golf in the footsteps of some of the world's greatest golfers on the magnificent Golf Course at Mount Wolseley which is firmly established as one of Ireland's premier Parkland Courses.

Carlow Golf Club Carlow

Set in the beautiful green countryside of the South East, Carlow Golf Club is an 18-hole parkland course laid out in a former wild deer park attached to the former Bruen Estate. The course has a sandy subsoil, which is links-like with undulating terrain, numerous elevated trees, several excellent doglegs and small slick putting surfaces. The 16th hole at Carlow Golf Club has been noted by Christy O'Connor Senior, as the best 16th hole in Ireland.

“Couldn't have asked for more when it comes to a golf trip. Many thanks Club Choice Ireland for the great service.”

Mike, Cardiff

South East Waterford

Waterford Castle Golf Club Waterford

For the ultimate golfing experience that will stay with you for a lifetime, Waterford Castle truly is an island dream! The unique Waterford Castle Golf Club is Ireland's only true island golf resort. Designed by Des Smyth, former Ryder Cup player & Vice Captain, and opened in 1992, this 18-hole, par 72 championship golf course, leads you through mature woodland and parkland measuring 6,814 yards, off the medal tees.

The Fitzwilton Hotel Waterford

The 4 star Fitzwilton Hotel is located in the heart of Waterford City with convenient access to Dublin and Rosslare port. The hotel has 90 contemporary style bedrooms, with many offering views across Waterford's cityscape and the River Suir. For dining options, the Met Bar Café and Chez K's Restaurant offers extensive menus for all tastes. The hotel is a short drive from some of the South East's top golf courses and is the ideal base for your golfing getaway to Waterford.

Faithlegg Golf Club Waterford

Located just 4 miles from Waterford City, Faithlegg Golf Course is set in a stunning parkland estate of some 200 acres. The course offers a championship yardage of 6,674 yards, with a combination of challenging dog legs, fast greens and blind shots that will test any golfer's approach play and putting precision.

The course was designed by Paddy Merrigan and is one of Waterford's "must play" courses.

Treacy's Hotel Waterford Waterford

Treacy's Hotel, Spa & Leisure Centre is set in a picturesque location overlooking the River Suir, in the heart of Ireland's Oldest City. Spacious guest accommodation has been designed with your comfort in mind. Timbertoes Bar serves a delicious selection of home cooked meals in the atmosphere of a traditional Irish pub. Or try Crokers Restaurant offering a wide variety of dishes; all created using the finest, freshest, Irish ingredients.

Waterford Golf Club Waterford

Founded in 1912, Waterford Golf Club is situated on a hill overlooking the historic city of Waterford in the sunny South East of Ireland. The front 9 was designed by Willie Park (twice Open Champion), and the back 9 was designed by the great James Braid, five times Open Champion. Together they successfully created one of the finest inland courses in South East Ireland with one of the most dramatic finishes you will have the pleasure of playing.

“Thank you for making our tour a success! We were shown such hospitality at Fitzwilton Hotel Faithlegg and Waterford golf clubs”

Gerard, Pontypool

Manor House (Mount Juliet) Kilkenny

The Manor House is the beating heart of the estate and has been ever since the first Earl of Carrick and his wife Juliet first made it their home in 1750. Step through its pillared entrance way and you enter a place out of time: lovingly preserved for the present-day; intimately updated in the most faithful manner.

A sense of romance touches every inch of the Manor House, and nowhere is this more apparent than in each of the 32 unique bedrooms.

Mount Juliet Golf Club Kilkenny

To play golf at Mount Juliet is to experience up to 7,200 yards of a visionary, a Jack Nicklaus Signature Designed Parkland, set across 180 acres of rolling Irish countryside. Magnificent specimen trees, miles of rushing river and verdant pastures all play their part, bringing sensational natural beauty to a course that is ranked among the world's finest parkland courses and has played host to numerous unforgettable tournaments including the 2021 & 2022 Irish Open.

Hunter's Yard (Mount Juliet) Kilkenny

The elegant courtyard of Mount Juliet Estate is home to the bright and spacious rooms of The Hunter's Yard. A tranquil hideaway adjacent to the Jack Nicklaus designed golf course and only a few paces from the treatment rooms and the tempting menus of the Hound Restaurant at Hunter's Yard, which offers all-day dining. Hunter's Yard Hotel includes 93 bedrooms with conference and banquet facilities for up to 180 guests. This is a golfers getaway, to the highest standards.

Kilkenny Golf Club Kilkenny
